FUNCTIONS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Confirmation of booking

To confirm a function booking or catering a 30% deposit of the function or catering cost is required, along with signed acceptance of these terms and conditions. If the deposit is not received, Zoie has the right to cancel your booking.

Final Confirmation

To ensure the best outcome for your event, we request confirmation of final guest numbers, menu and beverage selections are advised no later than 14 days prior to your function date or 7 days prior to your catering date. If confirmation of final numbers is not received within this time-frame, your function will be catered and charged at the maximum number quoted on your function booking summary.

Payments

Payment for all function food packages must be received no less than 14 days prior to your function or 7 days prior to your catering date. The balance of the function cost (for beverages and any additional charges), are to be paid on completion of the function. For private functions, there is a minimum spend on food and beverage of $2,500 (Monday to Thursday) and $3,000 (Friday to Sunday).

Cancellation

In the event of a cancellation, deposits will be refunded in full if written notice is given at least 21 days before the event. Zoie reserves the right to withhold 100% of the function deposit if cancellation is made less than 21 days prior to the function date. If cancellation is made after full payment is made (i.e. less than 14 days notice for a function or less than 7 days notice for catering), Zoie reserves the right to withhold 100% of the function deposit plus the full amount for the food cost, and the amount for any drinks that aren't on our standard drinks list.

Weather

The function organiser (you, the customer) accepts that the function can be affected by rainy and windy conditions. Zoie does not take any responsibility for those instances and is unable to give a refund due to unsuitable weather conditions. Our Functions Team will make every effort to accommodate you in our inside area, should this situation arise.

Duty of Care

We take our Duty of Care to our customers seriously and reserve the right for our Bar staff or Duty Manager to refuse the service of alcohol to someone who either:

- (i) fails to show photographic identification on request, or
- (ii) is noticeably intoxicated and may do harm to themselves, other patrons or property.

Zoie may engage local security to remove any patron from our premises, should they be acting in an inappropriate manner. If a guest is refused service or removed from the premises on these grounds, the cost of their attendance is not refundable.

Smoking

Zoie is a non-smoking venue. Smoking is permitted on the grassed area outside the café or at least 5m from our alfresco area boundary.

Under-Age Guests

Function guests under the age of 18 must be accompanied, at all times, by their parent/s or legal guardian/s. They will be required to wear a wristband to easily identify them as under the legal drinking age.

Responsibility and Damage

Zoie does not accept responsibility for damages to, or loss of, any customer's property or property of a supplier that the customer has organised that is left on our premises before, during, or after a function. Function organisers (you, the customer) are financially responsible for any damages to property owned by Zoie by your guests before, during or after a function. Zoie reserves the right to charge an additional 'Cleaning Fee' after the conclusion of the function should Management notice a substantial amount of broken glassware or other rubbish caused by guests of the function. Should there be any property damage (e.g. broken furniture) that was caused by the function organiser or their guests, Zoie will pass on any repair or replacement costs.

Security

Depending on the nature and size of the function, if the guidelines set out by the Department of Racing, Gaming and Liquor require a security guard be present, this will involve an additional cost that does not form part of any minimum spend requirements.

Decorations

The Function organiser (you, the customer) is able to add your own decorations to the venue under the following conditions:

- (i) Zoie encourages our customers to be environmentally aware when choosing decorations.
- (ii) Hanging decorations must be attached in a way that does not leave any marks on walls or windows – e.g. blu tac, double sided tape.
- (iii) All decorations (including balloons) must be removed at the end of the function

Entertainment / Noise Levels

Zoie can provide a small speaker and microphone for music (free of charge), or arrange a DJ or acoustic performer at an additional cost. Any entertainment costs are not included in the minimum spend requirements. Alternatively, the Function organiser (you, the customer) can organise your own music for your event. Noise levels will be monitored and controlled by Zoie team members in the interests of maintaining our excellent relationship with the surrounding residents.

Venue Hire

Venue is available 6pm until midnight.

An additional $200/hr is payable for venue hire after 10pm. This fee is waived if the total spend is $4,000 or more
